FAMILY MEDIATION is meant to settle amicably the consequences of a separation in an atmosphere of cooperation with a professional's help.

(service offered in French, English and Spanish)

Two conditions :

- Both spouses need to agree on the mediation process.
- Both spouses need to have the will to come to an agreement.

Pros :

- Discussions with an impartial and independent third party.
- Promotes communications and continuous dialogue to facilitate an agreement regarding all aspects of the separation showing respect to the other person.
- Decrease the impact of the separation on the children.
- Allows the spouses to be creative in finding a solution together, quickly and move forward.
- Reduces the costs of separation.
- Reaching a satisfactory and fair solution for all family members.
- Obtaining a written summary of the mediation agreements.

Costs :

- 5 h free for married parents or common law spouses with at least one dependent child.
- 3 h free for married couples or common law spouses with no child.
- 2.5 h free for an agreement or judgment revision.
- $130 / h for additional meetings at Inform'elle.
